Peek Inside the Book

Legends are very pretty but rarely touch on the important facts of life. Things like whether a 1969 red Mustang powered by a 351 Windsor can outrun a seventy-foot reptilian predator. Rhys Ford,...

Reader's Opinions

Now this was some damn interesting world building. Wow. Throw in the always excellent narration by Greg Tremblay and I was one happy reader. It behooves me to note this isn't a romance. It's more along the lines of Rhys's Ink and Shadows, and has hints of possible romance to happen in the series, but it's first and foremost about Kai...

Totally regret not reading this sooner. Because I'm the sort of degenerate reader who reads the second book before the first or the fourth in a series and then hodgepodge the rest in randomly--yeah, I'm one of those--I wish I'd dusted off my patootie and jumped straight back to this one after reading the sequel. And holy crackerdoodles...
